

LYRICS – PETER PERJES

Coma of Passion

Charpillon, Mary, Lizzy, Bettina, Casanova

It rages like a firestorm, it shows no mercy, don't know why
Eating up my insides, there's no escape, stays on my mind
This kiss burns forever, a paralyzing heat wave
It's a well known desire, once again I'm it's slave

Don't want to ever wake up from a coma of passion
Nothing will ever wake me from a coma of passion

Hot as flowing lava it courses through me head to toe
Making for the high point, the fever rising starts to glow
This kiss burns forever, a paralyzing heat wave
It's a well known desire, once again I'm it's slave

Don't want to ever wake up from a coma of passion
Nothing will ever wake me from a coma of passion

A million people, a million times
Ever falling deeper day by day

Don't want to ever wake up from a coma of passion
Nothing will ever wake me from a coma of passion
