

LYRICS – PETER PERJES

How I love to Be Free!

Casanova, everybody

For days and nights, I asked myself inside
Deep in my soul, if somehow hope still reside?

But I had the faith that the day would arrive
When wind would come open my sails
I'd take to flight and I'd soar so high
I have no fear that I'll rise one more time

The world keeps turning whirling me around
Living by the blade endless escapades,
Soaring eagles never touch the ground
No more boundaries, How I love to be free!

You must close your eyes and now trust what you see
This memory keep safe all your life
Trust in your dreams `coz your heart won't lie
You wake up one day and you know how to fly

The world keeps turning whirling me around
Living by the blade endless escapades,
Soaring eagles never touch the ground
No more boundaries, How I love to be free!

Don't even try, won't get away
Don't even try, won't get away
The Curse has got you now

The world keeps turning whirling me around
Living by the blade endless escapades,
Soaring eagles never touch the ground
No more boundaries, How I love to be free!

Close your eyes and now trust what you see
this memory keep safe all your life
trust in your dreams `coz your heart won't lie
I say it out loud How I love to be free
